Moral Insanity and Deviance in the late 19th century Italy

Queen Mary, University of London, 12 May 2014
Emilia Musumeci (University of Catania)
e.musumeci@studium.unict.it
Moral Insanity: an insoluble puzzle
Forensic expertise on the stage
Moral Insanity: “the terrible disease”

Carlo Livi (1823-1877)
the moral insane is “congenitally lacking in moral sense”.

Arrigo Tamassia (1849-1917)
From Prisons to Asylums
Clodomiro Bonfigli (1838-1919):

Moral Insanity versus ‘Nervism’
Moral Perversity and Education
Only a bad temper?
Cesare Lombroso (1835-1909) entered the scene
Vincenzo Verzeni
The Vampire of Padania
Moral insanity as the “disease of criminal monstrosity”
Between Good and Evil
The "scandal" of Duplicity
Thank you very much for your attention!